

MISSION

We tell our own stories sourcing myth, tradition and the contemporary Indigenous perspective

CORE COMPANY VALUES

• Story Sovereignty

We create space for Indigenous individuals and communities to locate themselves in their stories, and support them in telling those stories how they choose

• Community Activation

Art is a powerful tool to amplify and empower community voices in ways that contribute to Indigenous self-determination and wellbeing

• Cultural Embodiment

We ground our work in our Indigenous identities, practices, and living cultures

• Interconnection

We support the creation of art that honours the connection between people, place, community, and all living things

• Mentorship

We support artists and our community with deep care, respect and intentionality
